HAMSTER MAN

goes to COLLEGE

Now that I've graduated from High School, I can either become a migrant farmer like my dad, or go to college...

Let's see... I've got Archery 101, Beer 101, Sleeping 202 (I took the first requirement in High School), and Piercing 101. Whooah, Full load!

The First Day of Class.

Hamster Man tries to fit in.

BEER PARTY

Sponsored by:
OMEGA GAMMA ACKBAR

What did you do
this weekend?

You know; Went
to a party, got
date-raped,
the usual.

you
have
a big
head

Your final paper
on home brewing
will be due in one
week. Fifty pages,
double spaced.

Six days later.

I better get to
work on that paper.
Better pull an
all-nighter.

Aaaahhh! I'm going crazy! I've
only done half a page
and it's five o'clock
in the morning.
I hate this. I need beer. I need cigarettes. I need chocolate. I need
sleep! Now!

Hamster Man's Final.

Home brewing was
invented in the 1600's.
Home brewing is one
way to make beer at home. That's good.
Beer is good. Beer
tastes good. Bacon
tastes good. Pork chops tastes good.

The Loch Ness Hamster

I am having
Such a Wonderful
time here in Scotland.

I think I'll call
the Monkey and
brag about my Vacation.

Uh-oh. No quarters.
These damned skirts
don't have Pockets.

Iron Balls McGinty.

The coin falls in-
to the infamous
"Loch Ness".

Where is that Quarter?

Oh my God!

The Loch Ness
monster!

I see
it!
